

Letters of Hope

Bringing Hope to Syrians

The Syrian Emergency Task Force (SETF) launched the "Letters of Hope" program to show solidarity with Syrian children. Since its inception, we've sent thousands of letters to Syria from around the world.

Our mission is to bring hope and comfort to Syrian children who need it most. The Letters of Hope program has become one of our most impactful initiatives.

SETF HAS DELIVERED OVER 4,000 LETTERS TO SYRIANS FROM OVER 13 COUNTRIES SINCE 2016.

Your letters can make a significant difference in the lives of Syrian children, letting them know they are not alone and bringing hope for a brighter future.

WHO GETS YOUR LETTERS ?

Our dedicated team members frequently travel from the U.S. to the Turkish/Syria border, personally delivering your letters to the beneficiaries of our humanitarian programs: Wisdom House Kindergarten, Tomorrow's Dawn Women's Center, House of Healing Center, and Rukban Camp.

2025 FUNDING NEEDS

Funding Needs	Description	Estimated Amount
Logistics	Handling and delivering physical letters to recipients in Syria.	$5,000
Digital Infrastructure	Maintaining the online platform for uploading digital letters.	$2,000
Outreach and Awareness	Promoting the campaign in schools and communities to encourage more participation.	$7,500
Communication	Facilitating the exchange of messages between the international community and Syrian children and families.	$3,000

FROM
2016

MORE THAN
4000
LETTERS OF HOPE

FROM 13+
COUNTRIES

AND 17+
US STATES

Scan for more information

*If you are looking to support the Letters of Hope Initiative or donate/fund our 2025 needs, please send an email to SETF's Director of Humanitarian Projects:

Natalie Larrison - nlarrison@setf.ngo